

Free Job Training in Cable Installation

Brooklyn Networks

ACTIVELY RECRUITING!!

- Brooklyn Networks is a 5 week intensive hands-on training program that will help you start a career in the field of network cable installation.
- Cable Technicians install the lines that run behind walls and ceilings that are hooked up to computers, telephones, security systems, A/V Equipment and broadcast cable.
- Job placement assistance is available so you can put your new skills to work.

Student Terminates 25 Pair Cable

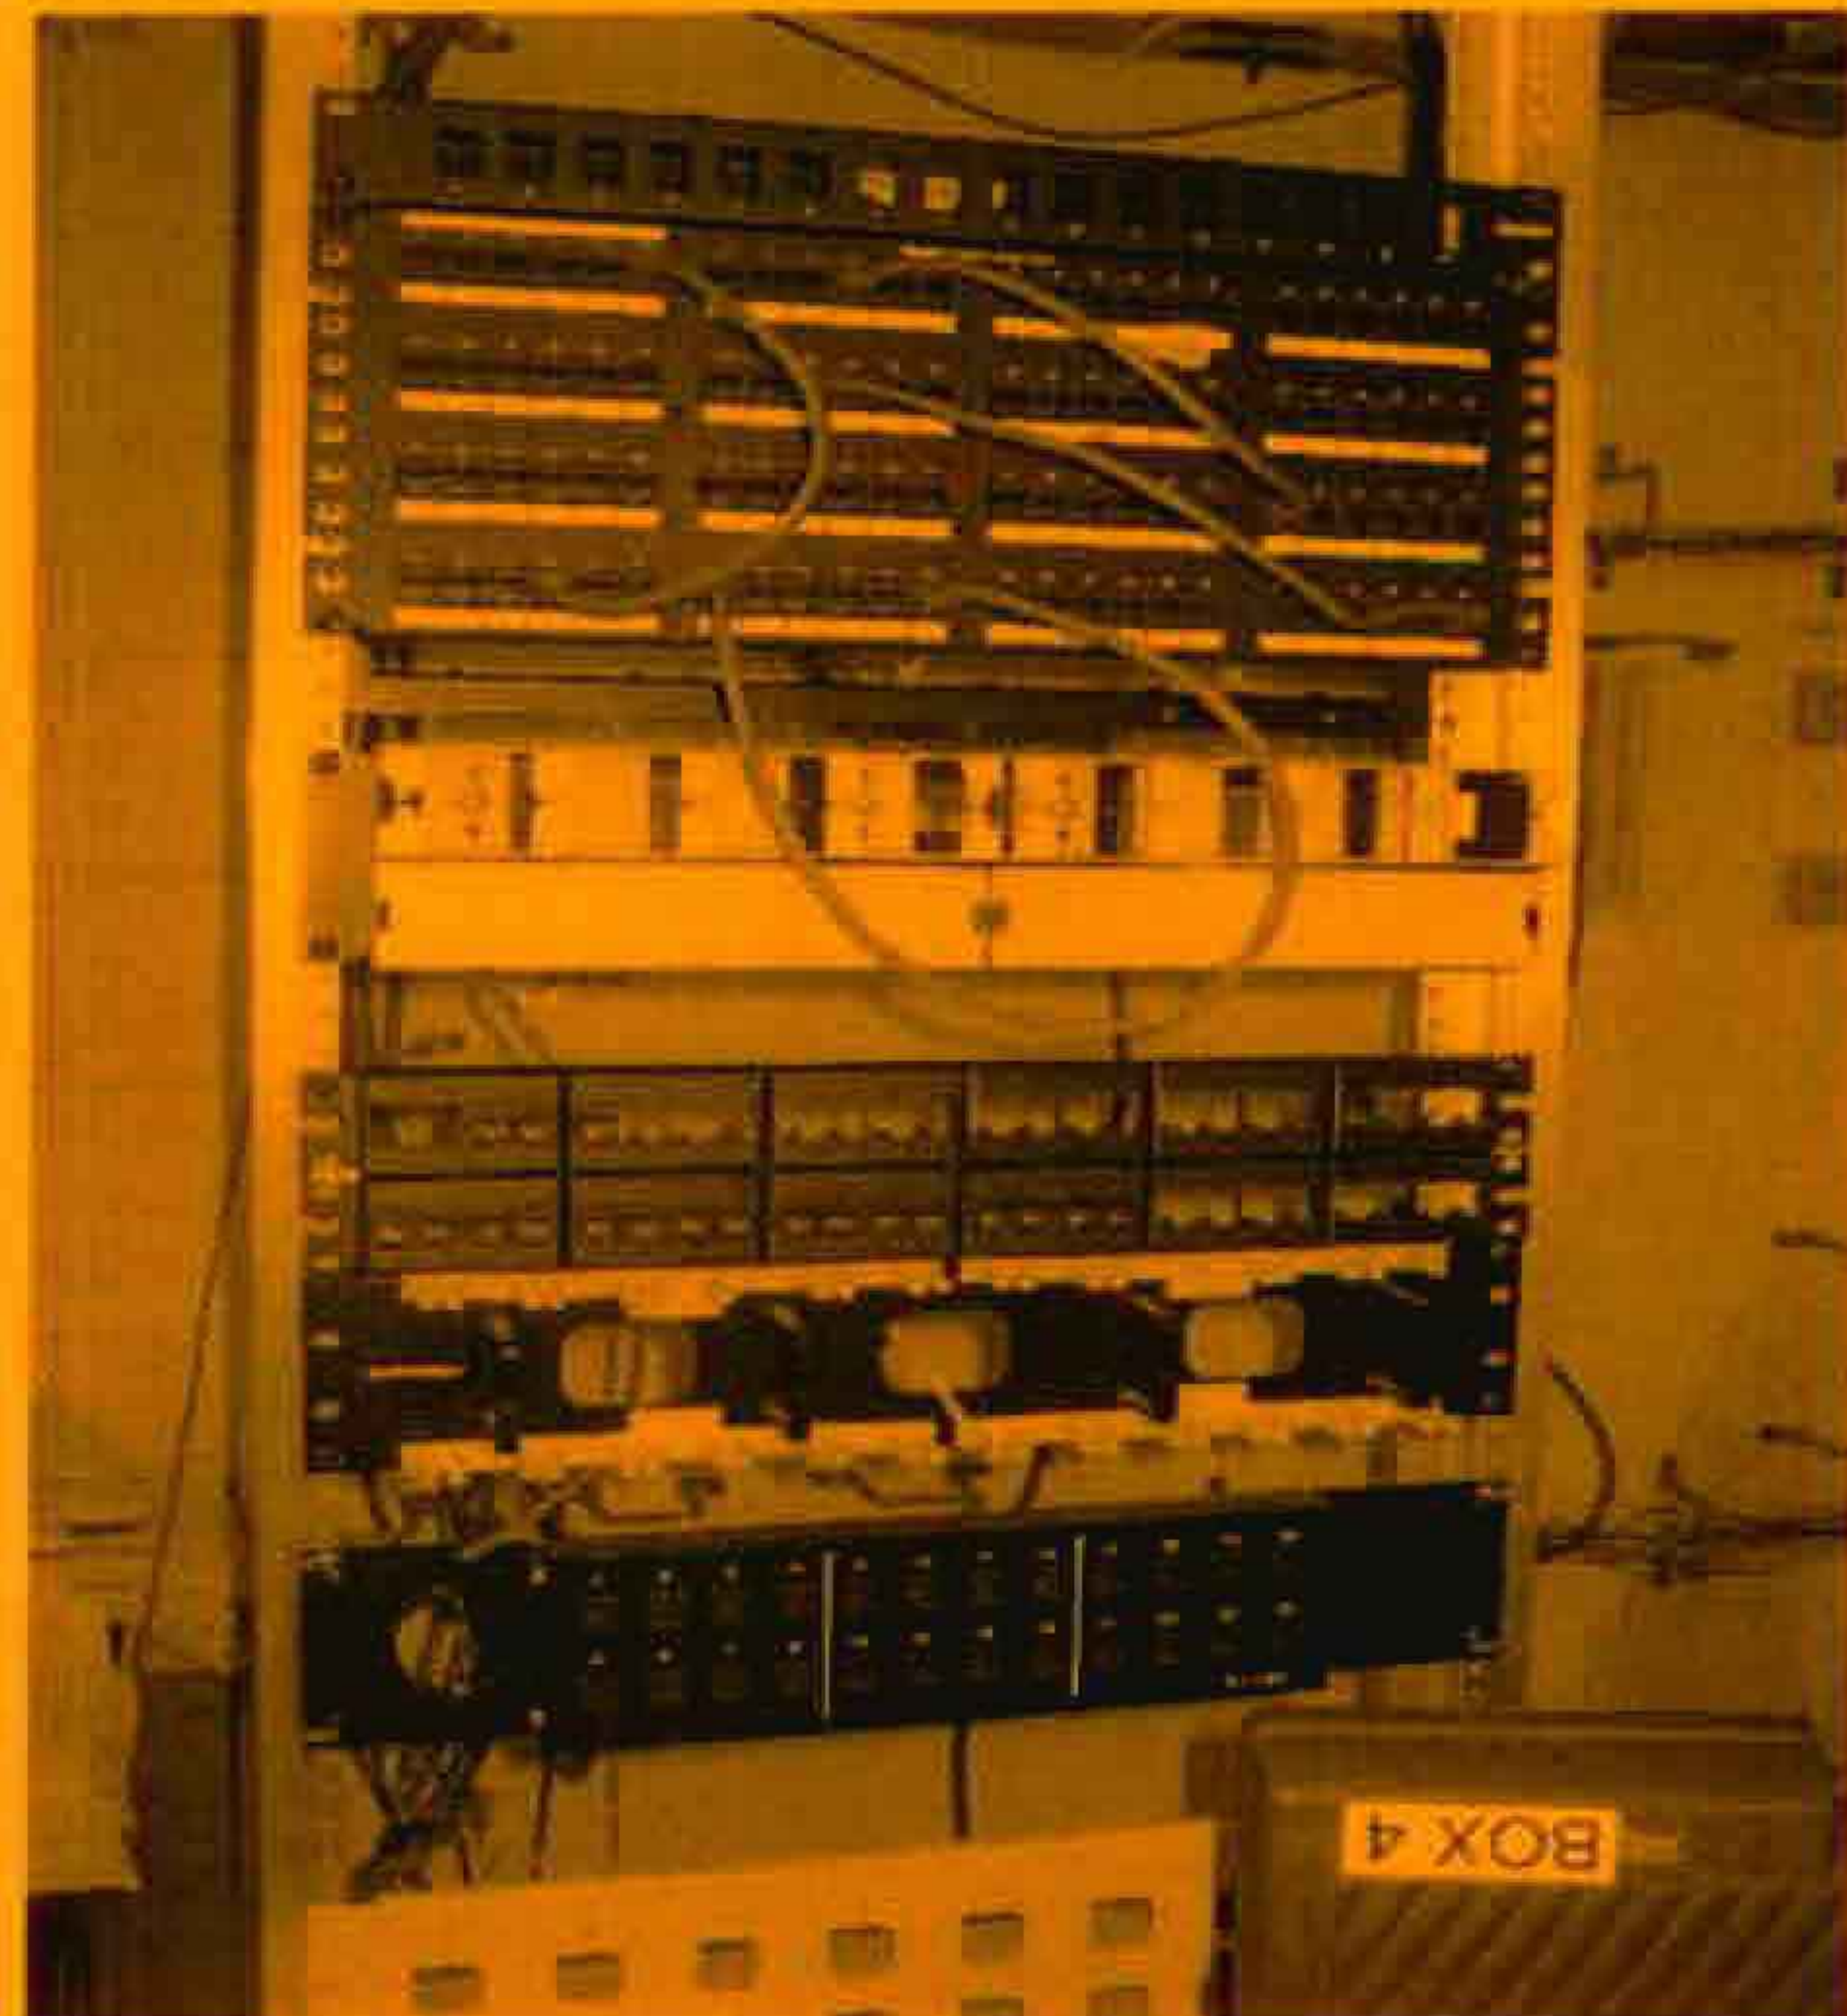

HOW TO APPLY

Learn more about the program by attending an orientation. You will also be given a reading and math test.

Orientations are held every Tuesday 10:00 AM Sharp at 621 Degraw Street between 3rd & 4th ave, in Park Slope Brooklyn. Please note: no one is admitted after the start time.

To be eligible you must meet all of the following criteria:

- 1) Live in New York City & Legally eligible to work in the US.
- 2) 21 Years or older.
- 3) Able to attend class Monday - Friday 7:45 AM to 4 PM. Classes are held on the New York City College of Technology campus.
- 4) Have a clean, valid NY State Drivers License.
- 5) Pass a drug test & Physically fit/able to lift 70lbs.
- 6) Able to pass a reading and math test at/or above the 8th grade level.
- 7) A person with a low income or receiving public assistance

Data Patch Panel in our Telecommunications Lab

For more information please contact Erica Plasse at 718-237-2017 x 149

Brooklyn Networks is sponsored by Brooklyn Workforce Innovations in partnership with the New York City College of Technology/CUNY